

CEO of CCP12 Job Description and Requirements

The CEO shall serve as the legal representative of the Association under applicable law, and act in accordance with the requirements by the CCP12 Articles of Association, and the Executive Committee (ExCo) meetings and General Meetings.

The CEO shall work towards, and be responsible for:

1. Engaging regulators and authorities and maintaining relationships with market participants and media.
2. Periodically visiting key regulators and authorities in accordance with the annual working plan with the goal of ensuring appropriate regulatory regimes and optimal market structures for our industry;
3. Participating in various CCP-related international conferences, forums and multilateral talks, acting as the voice of CCP12, and informing and educating market stakeholders about the role of CCPs and the value they add to the global financial system;
4. Keeping informed of any relevant legal or regulatory changes and informing members accordingly should they be affected;
5. Organizing annual general meeting, special general meetings and forums according to annual working plans and inviting regulators and authorities, market participants and media to participate in such activities to enhance their understandings of and support to the Association and the CCP industry;
6. Leading the CEO Office and being responsible for the daily operation of the Association.
7. Fostering collaboration and information sharing among members:
 - (1) Fostering collaboration among CCPs, encouraging best practice through the appropriate sharing of information for mutual benefit and organizing the CCP12 working committees to enable the cooperation on different subject matters.
 - (2) Organizing CCP research, sharing and publishing research findings and managing the relationship to academia, who is doing research on CCP subject matters.
 - (3) Keeping all members updated with any changes in all CCP12 matters and encouraging communication among members via multiple channels;

8. Conducting CCP professional services:

- (1) Organizing the research and development of a CCP professional services and certification mechanism ;
- (2) Organizing the professional trainings for members and other market participants;
- (3) Organizing certification and licensing of best practices, standards and templates for members and other market participants;
- (4) Developing further services by CCP12 to enhance the financial optimization plan of CCP12;

9. Other responsibility:

- (1) Drafting and updating annual working plan and budget to be approved by the ExCo and General Meeting;
- (2) Executing all directives of ExCo meetings, Annual General Meetings and Special General Meetings; Carrying out tasks that are consistent with the Association's objectives.

The CEO shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) Enthusiastic and experienced capital market veteran with a proven track record in business operations, to lead CCP12 to become a prominent industry association;
- (2) Strong communication skills, ability to interact with high-ranking officials of international regulatory group, authorities and governmental bodies;
- (3) Strong business acumen, familiar with international capital markets, especially with the OTC market and CCP clearing business, familiar with international regulatory developments regarding CCP business, including CMPI-IOSCO PFMI, Basel capital requirements, and regional implementations.
- (4) Having related educational and professional backgrounds, CCP business experience is preferred;
- (5) Willing to travel, but to be based in Shanghai.

Please send your application and cv to careers@ccp12global.com

For more details contact our current CEO under marcus.zickwolff@ccp12global.com